

ARMAND ASSANTE

NEW YORK

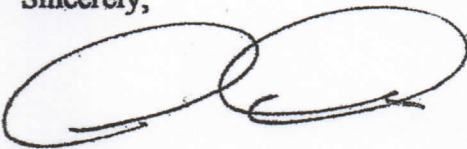

To Whom It May Concern:

Eleanor Spring came highly recommended to me with a reputation that preceded her. I had two complicated situations concerning issues of fraud I had been dealing with for a very long time. Before I could approach the proper legal representation I was in need of, a lot of data and more importantly proof had to be rectified.

Suffice it to say, Eleanor Spring not only responded with information that reconciled the issues in question, but quantified, with backed up documentation exactly what was both pertinent to the cases, and necessary. In both instances she garnered instant scrutiny and respect from my lawyer at Cadwalader, Wickersham and Taft, as well as the private investigation agency I work with.

A woman who is a highly valued instrument of intelligence and resourcefulness and in her chosen field, I will always look to Eleanor Spring for her expertise. She has been a good friend.

Sincerely,

Armand Assante
